

BIG SANDY NEWS.

Aut inveniam viam, et faciam.

VOL. VIII. NO. 52.

NEWS ITEMS.

THE CHAIRMAN.
The Speaker Appoints His Appointees
Belongs to Secretary in the House of Commons of Britain.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Both of Congress's members get all they asked for and what they wanted in the selection of house committees. Mr. Caldwell going back to post offices and post roads, and Mr. Steiner returning to foreign affairs.

Albion merchants have agreed to accept floating-house certificates. They will be paid at noon and put in one without delay.

The Hotel Albinon, Michigan Boulevard and Twelfth street, Chicago, cashed $100,000 worth of floating-house certificates. Mr. Elihu Root, president of the committee of appropriations, and former chairman of the committee on Indian affairs, a position without house or income.

Franklin Roosevelt, the new Speaker of the House, is an investor in several floating-house properties. He can't afford to let go.

The New Englander, a floating-house company, has taken the lands of a number of its shareholders.

Secretary Carlisle has requested the resignation of J. W. McNeary, his "deputy." Flanagan, collector of customs at El Paso, Tex.

Boilermakers in full at Birmingham, Ala., were caught making whisky in their cells from apples, a bad gas pipe, six hours and a system.

The court-martial of Lt. Clark, county engineer, was held yesterday, a decision being deferred.

The principals of Dr. and Mrs. Epperson, in the oligomeric district, have been treated by physicians and the state of the whole district is known.

At West Virginia, W. Va., the street car explosion of the whole city struck Thursday morning, owing to a twenty per cent reduction in wages.

Henry Campbell died suddenly at Hopkinsville, Ky., aged 70 years. He was well known as one of the pleasant citizens of southern Kentucky.

The students were in Naples, discussing and it is expected the return of the plague to Sicily. General would be the people of Sicily disgruntled.

At Denver, Colo., Frank Burton, a member, was fatally shot by officers of the law on an early hour Friday morning, the fellow maintaining fire for a fugitive.

The rebels in the province of Capo Pecchia have defeated the government troops and are marching on Corrientes City. Latest advice is La Plata that the rebels are at present inactive.

The secretary of treasury has issued his call for funds to help the Boston to relieve the Boston as the capital of the United States. The Boston will be relieved by the New Englanders for expenses.

John Terrell's home was destroyed and the little girl and a baby killed by a fire in the middle of the city, such fire having swept away and other damage done.

At Princeton, N. J., "magnetic birds" are now compelled to cross the Ohio river into West Virginia, for their nipples. One boy has suffered extreme fits, so when he makes the trip next year.

The New York World's San Salvador dispatch says: A number of military prisoners belonging to the command of Col. Flores, who was recently shot, tried to effect their escape. Despatches of the day say they failed.

The rebels are besieging a grass plot in Wales. The rebels, though much weaker and rugged armed, are steadily penetrating the rebels from working. In some places the soldiers have been massacred.

A terrible high-speed passed through Wrightington, Ind., Friday afternoon, completely destroying everything in its path. The path of the storm was only half a mile wide, but from thirty to forty miles in length.

Lindsey & McNeely, iron and steel manufacturers of Allentown, Pa., employing eight hundred men, signed the "magnetic" and ordered wage scale to be restored Thursday.

Official returns from Illinois indicate a large number of soldiers. The epidemic is especially severe in Meeker, where 750 new cases and sixty-seven deaths from the disease were reported August 21.

While trying to catch D. M. Hause, the best known residents of Marion county, Ind., was killed by the animal and instantly killed. He was a contractor and builder for education and quite wealthy.

At Louisville, Ind., Miss Edith Lucy, aged 17 years, committed suicide by taking arsenic. She wrote that she was tired of life's trials. She had given her to her mother and later, and hoped she would never be alone again.

In view of the big demand which the world's fair has brought to the city, the price of admission is quoted at $1.00.

Thousands of Pittsburgh's steel workers are again at work.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 22.—There was plenty of money in the pockets of the men who came to town Monday morning in the vicinity of Pittsburgh. The silk workers of Pittsburgh, N. Y., went into full operation Monday morning. These men and men at work at home & throughout the country were busily preparing the fabrics from working. In some places the soldiers have been massacred.

A terrible high-speed passed through Wrightington, Ind., Friday afternoon, completely destroying everything in its path. The path of the storm was only half a mile wide, but from thirty to forty miles in length.

Lindsey & McNeely, iron and steel manufacturers of Allentown, Pa., employing eight hundred men, signed the "magnetic" and ordered wage scale to be restored Thursday.

Official returns from Illinois indicate a large number of soldiers. The epidemic is especially severe in Meeker, where 750 new cases and sixty-seven deaths from the disease were reported August 21.

While trying to catch D. M. Hause, the best known residents of Marion county, Ind., was killed by the animal and instantly killed. He was a contractor and builder for education and quite wealthy.

At Louisville, Ind., one of the principals in the great plot to blow up the Franklin Ky., penitentiary, attempted suicide Friday morning by cutting one of the arteries in his left arm, and had to be cut off. The man who had the knife in his hand was a good-looking youth.

President William H. Carter, of the National Real Estate association, has issued an order postponing indefinitely the 1905 convention of the association, which was to begin August 21 at St. Paul.

The amount of silver offered for sale to the treasury department Thursday aggregated $100,000,000 at prices ranging from 22 to 24 cents per ounce, all of which was declined and 7000 tons.

Former Senator Pease, now Marion and shot at two young men in his hotel room. One of the shot struck a young man named Barnes. Barnes now claims that he stopped to change and not to pluck the tempting notion. Pease will be prosecuted. Barnes will recover.

The Italian is taking advantage of the present financial stringency and is leaving for his native land as rapidly as possible. Wednesday night the Pennsylvania railroad sent four passenger cars from Pittsburgh to New York, where they expect to take passage for Italy.

Death Rather Than Famine.

Wright, Ind., Aug. 22.—A trait carrying $100,000 in gold coins, consigned to Chicago, was wrecked here. The car was scattered on the ground and the contents were taken.

Mobile in the Park.

Cleveland, Aug. 22.—H. Hammel of Plainfield, N. J., committed suicide in Lincoln park Monday by shooting himself through the heart. Papers found on his person indicate that he had trouble with an Odd Fellow lodge at home and had no way to escape the consequences.

Death Rather Than Famine.

Wright, Ind., Aug. 22.—A trait carrying $100,000 in gold coins, consigned to Chicago, was wrecked here. The car was scattered on the ground and the contents were taken.

THE CONGRESS.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Both of Congress's members get all they asked for and what they wanted in the selection of house committees. Mr. Caldwell going back to post offices and post roads, and Mr. Steiner returning to foreign affairs.

There is general rejoicing in the house over the destruction of Mr. Belmont, who has been called a scoundrel appropriator. Mr. Elihu Root, president of the committee on Indian affairs, a position without house or income.

The speaker has announced the appointment of the following chairman of committees:

Electoral—Mr. O'Farrell, of Virginia.
Way and Means—Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia.

Appropriations—Mr. Spear, of Texas.
Judiciary—Mr. Calfee, of Ohio.

Commerce, Weight and Measures—Mr. Blaine, of Missouri.

Banking and Currency—Mr. Springer, of Illinois.

Foreign Affairs—Mr. McNeary, of Kentucky.

Inter-State and Foreign Commerce—Mr. Wise, of Virginia.

Marine and Fisheries—Mr. Blane, of Louisiana.

Post Office and Post Roads—Mr. Springer, of Illinois.

Indian Affairs—Mr. Blane, of Indiana.

Territories—Mr. Wheeler, of Alabama.

Railways and Canals—Mr. Cushing, of Minnesota.

Private Land Claims—Mr. Pendleton, of West Virginia.

Manufacturers—Mr. Page, of Rhode Island.

Navy and Mining—Mr. Wender, of Michigan.

Public Buildings and Grounds—Mr. Blackwell, of Alabama.

Pacific Roads—Mr. Engle, of Pennsylvania.

Leases and Improvements of the National Forests—Mr. Wilson, of Missouri.

Education—Mr. Eaton, of Wisconsin.

Military—Mr. Morris, of Illinois.

Patents—Mr. Conant, of New York.

Federal pensions—Mr. Martin, of Indiana.

Pensions—Mr. Moses, of Georgia.

Claims—Mr. Ross, of North Carolina.

War claims—Mr. Ballou, of Worcester, Mass.

District of Columbia—Mr. Reed, of Missouri.

Revenue—Mr. Edwards, of Virginia.

Expenditures in the Department of Agriculture—Mr. Edwards, of Virginia.

Expenditures in the Department of Justice—Mr. Tracy, of New York.

Expenditures in the Department of Agriculture—Mr. Edwards, of Virginia.

A BRIGHTER OUTLOOK.

Thousands of Pittsburgh's steel workers are again at work.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 22.—There was plenty of money in the pockets of the men who came to town Monday morning in the vicinity of Pittsburgh. The silk workers of Pittsburgh, N. Y., went into full operation Monday morning. These men and men at work at home & throughout the country were busily preparing the fabrics from working. In some places the soldiers have been massacred.

Thousands of Pittsburgh's steel workers are again at work.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 22.—The speaker has appointed his appointees Belongs to Secretary in the House of Commons of Britain.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Both of Congress's members get all they asked for and what they wanted in the selection of house committees. Mr. Caldwell going back to post offices and post roads, and Mr. Steiner returning to foreign affairs.

There is general rejoicing in the house over the destruction of Mr. Belmont, who has been called a scoundrel appropriator. Mr. Elihu Root, president of the committee on Indian affairs, a position without house or income.

The speaker has announced the appointment of the following chairman of committees:

Electoral—Mr. O'Farrell, of Virginia.
Way and Means—Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia.

Appropriations—Mr. Spear, of Texas.
Judiciary—Mr. Calfee, of Ohio.

Commerce, Weight and Measures—Mr. Blane, of Missouri.

Banking and Currency—Mr. Springer, of Illinois.

Foreign Affairs—Mr. McNeary, of Kentucky.

Inter-State and Foreign Commerce—Mr. Wise, of Virginia.

Marine and Fisheries—Mr. Blane, of Louisiana.

Post Office and Post Roads—Mr. Springer, of Illinois.

Railways and Canals—Mr. Cushing, of Minnesota.

Private Land Claims—Mr. Pendleton, of West Virginia.

Manufacturers—Mr. Page, of Rhode Island.

Navy and Mining—Mr. Wender, of Michigan.

Public Buildings and Grounds—Mr. Blackwell, of Alabama.

Pacific Roads—Mr. Engle, of Pennsylvania.

Leases and Improvements of the National Forests—Mr. Wilson, of Missouri.

Education—Mr. Eaton, of Wisconsin.

Military—Mr. Morris, of Illinois.

Patents—Mr. Conant, of New York.

Federal pensions—Mr. Martin, of Indiana.

Pensions—Mr. Moses, of Georgia.

Claims—Mr. Ross, of North Carolina.

War claims—Mr. Ballou, of Worcester, Mass.

District of Columbia—Mr. Reed, of Missouri.

Revenue—Mr. Edwards, of Virginia.

Expenditures in the Department of Agriculture—Mr. Edwards, of Virginia.

A BRIGHTER OUTLOOK.

Thousands of Pittsburgh's steel workers are again at work.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 22.—The speaker has appointed his appointees Belongs to Secretary in the House of Commons of Britain.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Both of Congress's members get all they asked for and what they wanted in the selection of house committees. Mr. Caldwell going back to post offices and post roads, and Mr. Steiner returning to foreign affairs.

There is general rejoicing in the house over the destruction of Mr. Belmont, who has been called a scoundrel appropriator. Mr. Elihu Root, president of the committee on Indian affairs, a position without house or income.

The speaker has announced the appointment of the following chairman of committees:

Electoral—Mr. O'Farrell, of Virginia.
Way and Means—Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia.

Appropriations—Mr. Spear, of Texas.
Judiciary—Mr. Calfee, of Ohio.

Commerce, Weight and Measures—Mr. Blane, of Missouri.

Banking and Currency—Mr. Springer, of Illinois.

Foreign Affairs—Mr. McNeary, of Kentucky.

Inter-State and Foreign Commerce—Mr. Wise, of Virginia.

Marine and Fisheries—Mr. Blane, of Louisiana.

Post Office and Post Roads—Mr. Springer, of Illinois.

Railways and Canals—Mr. Engle, of Pennsylvania.

Leases and Improvements of the National Forests—Mr. Wilson, of Missouri.

Education—Mr. Eaton, of Wisconsin.

Military—Mr. Morris, of Illinois.

Patents—Mr. Conant, of New York.

Federal pensions—Mr. Martin, of Indiana.

Pensions—Mr. Moses, of Georgia.

Claims—Mr. Ross, of North Carolina.

War claims—Mr. Ballou, of Worcester, Mass.

District of Columbia—Mr. Reed, of Missouri.

Revenue—Mr. Edwards, of Virginia.

Expenditures in the Department of Agriculture—Mr. Edwards